March 8-10 U18 bowlers Jeremy Morris and Tristan Perham traveled to Sacramento to participate in the PBA jr regional qualifier. The event was a three round series bowling on a long, medium and short pattern over two days. The U18 field consisted of 21 skilled youth bowlers and the patterns definitely tested their abilities. Tristan bowled hard, made some great shots but struggled to find the pocket consistently, missing the cut. Jeremy had a strong day, grinding through to finish in the 6th seed going into playoffs. Sadly, playoffs were a return of the grueling short pattern. He could not get his ball to carry and Tyler Tran took the win for their match. Overall, Jeremy placed 9th, going +112 and winning a bit of scholarship money. Tristan just missed the cut, landing at 14 out of 21. Onto the next tournament March 18, 2024 for JBT at Bowlum.

On Saturday, March 9, 2024, five of our GEUSBC youth bowlers, U15 Gabriel Regpala Jr, Tarin Espinoza, Gabriella Hogan, and Nickolas Hogan, and U12 Isaiah Franklin traveled to Fresno for the first of three tournaments in the Youth Tournament Series. They bowled 3 games with handicaps. Congratulations to Gabriel, who bowled 209, 246, and 175 and placed 7th. Gabriella bowled 183, 137, 168, and placed 8th. Isaiah Franklin placed 7th in his division, rolling 172, 124, 153. GEUSBC is raising some fantastic up and coming bowlers!
