On Sunday, March 17, 2024, U18 youth bowler, Jeremy Morris, represented Bakersfield GEUSBC at the Junior Bowlers Tournament held at Bowlm Lanes in Montclair, CA. Forty-two scratch bowlers took on the Chichen Itza pattern, a 40 foot 3:1 challenge.

After five games the top 16 bowlers moved on to matchplay, Jeremy placed 6th with a -5 to qualify then moved on to win his first match 259-166. The second match he faced the incomparable Katelyn Abigania. After a nail-biting match that came down to the tenth frame, Jeremy took the win with a 243-237 to put him +160, positioning him for second seed in the stepladder finals. Katelyn came back for redemption as they played each other again, with a resounding 213-157. He just couldn't find the line on the freshly oiled lanes. Although disappointed he missed the win, he was happy he finished third for the day. This win officially made him eligible for the Invitational in June. It was great practice and great fun, plus the opportunity to speak with the CSU Fullerton bowling coaches who were onsite all day was icing on the cake.

A big congratulations on the lanes this week to Zack Newman of the UPS Store League! Zack bowled an outstanding 822 in league.

Sending positive vibes to Alex and Stephanie Garcia for this coming Saturday, March 30, as the two represent GEUSBC at the BVL tournament in San Bernardino, CA.
