NOTEWORTHY NEWS:

GEUSBC hosted its annual City Tournament on April 20-21 and April 27-28. There were 251 total entries over two weekends of singles/doubles and team events. Results are unofficial until posted for 10 days, but official results will be posted immediately after the 10 days pass without challenge. See the GEUSBC website for unofficial results.

GEUSBC youth bowlers have been busy in April. On April 21 youth bowler, Tristan Perham bowled the Bowlero Youth Classic held in West Covina, CA. On April 27-28, three GEUSBC youth bowlers traveled down to El Cajon, CA for Junior Bowlers Tour tournament to test their skills. Gabriella Hogan, U15, bowled on Saturday April 27 along with brother Nick Hogan, U18. Gabriella made the cut in the handicap event and went onto finals, winning 7th place and scholarship dollars for her SMART account! Youth bowler Jeremy Morris, U18, bowled both days, Saturday and Sunday. The Saturday pattern was a 47' SYC Florida pattern. Jeremy placed 8th overall in the scratch event. On Sunday, he bowled on the 37' and worked hard to place 5th overall scratch, winning scholarship dollars. Congratulations to all of our up and coming youth bowlers!

Central Valley Masters ended their season on April 29, 2024 in a roll off. Congratulations to Team 15 for winning the 1st place $5000 Central Valley Masters Tuesday night league. Great matches all around and the final match coming down to 1 pin. Congratulations to The Pin Pricks for taking 2nd.
