NOTEWORTHY NEWS:

Save the date! The Annual GEUSBC Awards Banquet will be held on Saturday, October 19, 2024. The location is still being finalized and will be announced. Keep an eye out for annual award nomination forms coming soon!

Once again, GEUSBC youth were busy these last few weekends. Fresno Youth Bowling held a youth tournament at Fresno State College Bulldog Bowling Alley. Four GEUSBC bowlers, Gabriel Regpala, Jr, U15, Kady Richardson U15, Isaiah Franklin, U12, and Tarin Espinoza U18 attended the one day event. Gabriel bowled 809 over four games - 190, 160, 249, 210. His 202 average was enough to take first place in his division for the day! Isaiah Franklin bowled his highest game of his career with 213 and took third place in his division, earning $100. Kady Richardson had a solid day and placed second in her division, winning $200 in scholarships. Tarin Espinoza also had a solid day bowling 201, 200, 256 and 199 and won a $50 scholarship.

Kady Richardson's weekend of bowling continued on Sunday with her bowling family - Jana Richardson, Terry Hickey, Stephanie Garcia, and Alex Garcia. Central California USBC held a No-Tap Tournament in Clovis, CA. Kady scored another second place win, earning herself $325 in scholarship money for the weekend!

Her mother, Jana Richardson placed second in the Women's Division, missing first place by only one pin! Her aunt, Stephanie Garcia, set the bar in the first game by bowling the first 300 of the day. An exciting weekend for an amazing family!

The 2024 Nationals are officially over. GEUSBC Stephanie Garcia can now share her impressive results! After all was said and done, Stephanie averaged 229 for the 9 games on a "challenge" pattern, using only 1 ball the entire event. Overall, in Team she bowled in the Ruby Division where the team finished 39th. In the Doubles Diamond division they finished 144th. In the Singles Diamond division she finished tied for 11th, her highest finish to date. In All Events Diamond, she finished 52nd. Impressive results, Stephanie! Congratulations!

In Southern California, two up and coming GEUSBC youth bowlers traveled to Diamond Bar, CA to bowl in the CAL USBC Youth State Championships. This event took place over two weekends at the end of June 2024. Our Bakersfield bowlers, Tristan Perham U18 and Jeremy Morris U18, bowled one day of the four, Saturday, June 29, 2024. The bowlers entered as singles, doubles partners and team.

Tristan Perham: 1st place in All Events in Boys Division A with 2111.

Jeremy Morris: 4th place All Events Boys Division A with 2029

Tristan Perham: 4th place singles in Boys Division A with 705

Jeremy Morris: 6th place singles in Boys Division with 686

Jeremy Morris and Tristan Perham: 2nd place doubles in Boys Division A with 1330

While awaiting final results and scholarship payouts, we want to give a shout out to these two up and coming bowlers who are representing themselves and Bakersfield so well. Way to go gentlemen!
